KING HOLIDAY WEEKEND IN DEATH VALLEY JANUARY 14 to 17, 2005

LEADER: Joseph Smith, Phone 818-354-3328, email: joseph.f.smith@jpl.nasa.gov

CLASSIFICATION: Easy to Hard, your option COST: $9.00 per person

TRIP LIMIT: 32 people maximum, limit of 8 cars, with overflow parking available

DESCRIPTION: Death Valley is located in the eastern California desert, about a 6 hour drive from Pasadena. Please note, there were heavy rains in the Park in August, and some roads and access to the park are closed. This situation will be discussed with the latest information at the pre-trip meeting.

Terrain within the park range from below sea level at Badwater, to the top of Telescope Peak. Death Valley has plenty of activities (easy walks, tours of Scotty's Castle, and even a golf course), hiking in numerous canyons, and a range of 4-wheeling back road opportunities. Weather is usually nice this time of year, with sunny skies and cool evenings.

There is no set schedule for the trip, drive up on Friday, day or evening. You will have all day on Saturday and Sunday to explore, or revisit your favorite places. There will be a pot-luck happy hour on Saturday evening. After breaking camp on Monday (a JPL holiday), there should be time for some final activities before the drive home.

We will be staying at the Furnace Creek campground, which is within walking distance of the park's visitor's center, and about a mile from Furnace Creek Ranch.

BRING: The normal car camping equipment; tent, sleeping bag, stove, cooking gear, food, and layered clothing. Also, bring a share item for a pot luck happy hour. This will be reviewed at the pre-trip meeting.

PRE-TRIP MEETING: On, 11 January 2004 in Conference Room 301-169 from 12 noon to 1:00 PM. Be there or be represented or make prior arrangements with the trip leader. Those who are not represented at the meeting could lose their reservations if the trip is over subscribed. Make your reservations early by sending in your check with the coupon below.

If you have any questions, please call the Trip Leader.

Hiking + Members: Please make a copy of this flyer and post on your local bulletin board. Thanks!
