After Work Eaton Canyon Hike / Pot Luck

Wednesday, August 23

MEET: at 5:15 p.m. Ed Rinderle's house
1746 Midwick Dr., Altadena - see directions below. We will leave promptly at 5:30!

RATING: Easy to moderate (some gentle hills)

DISTANCE: About 3 1/2 miles

We begin by walking through a lovely Altadena neighborhood to the newly restored Eaton Canyon Nature Preserve. There, we will see labeled examples of a selection of native plants. We will then proceed up the canyon on a dirt trail lined with trees and shrubs. We will cross the bridge at the foot of the Henninger Flats trail and return via another section of Altadena, stopping briefly to see the Balian mansion (which puts on quite a show at Christmas time).

Anyone who wants to is welcome to stay at Ed's house for an pot luck. If you plan to stay, please bring some food to share - any food you'd like, enough to feed yourself (yourselves). You are welcome to use Ed's stove and/or refrigerator.

WARNING: Ed does NOT have a microwave!

Please RSVP to Ed by the end of the day Monday, August 21.

WHAT TO BRING: Water, comfortable shoes, food for the pot luck

DIRECTIONS: From the 210 freeway heading West, take the Allen Ave. off ramp. Heading East, take the Hill Ave. off ramp and continue East on the street paralleling the freeway about 1/2 mile to Allen Ave.

Take Allen Ave. North about 2 1/2 miles to Midwick Dr. The last signal light you will pass is New York Drive. If you reach the stop sign at Allen and Mendocino, you've gone one block too far.

Turn left from Allen onto Midwick. The street forks immediately; take the right-hand fork. Ed lives at 1746 Midwick Dr (south side of the street).
